

Please use the map below to make your travels easy in downtown Cadillac when the construction begins in April. Mitchell Street is still open to through traffic, but this map provides alternative routes as well. Note that Lake Street is recommended as the primary, north-south alternative route to Mitchell Street. Feel free to make copies or download this map.

